WE, THE MEMBERS OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION OF THE COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON, ADHERE TO THE FOLLOWING OPERATING GUIDELINES:

100.000 Senate Duties

The duties of the Senator shall be as follows:

100.001 To act as an official representative of the Student Government Association and the College of Charleston.

100.002 To serve as a representative of the student body.

100.003 To attend all events deemed mandatory by the Executive Council of the Student Government Association.

100.004 To introduce legislation suggested by members of the student body.

100.005 To hold the power to confirm all appointments made by the members of the Executive Council to offices that are permanent under the Constitution and Bylaws.

100.006 All members of Student Government shall not represent organizations to which they belong when seeking to form an organization, nor shall they represent organizations when petitioning for contingency funding from the Allocations Committee, nor attend budget hearings as a representative of an organization seeking funding, nor be a representative of an organization in Senate.

100.007 To remain in good academic standing with the College throughout their term of office.

100.008 Each member of Senate has rights and obligations equal to those of every other member; there are no seniority rights.

100.009 A Senator is allowed a total of two unexcused absences between both Senate and Committee meetings during each semester.

100.010 More than two unexcused absences between both Senate and Committee meetings during each semester shall result in involuntary resignation.

100.011 Senators are responsible for reporting Senate absences to the Chief of Staff twenty-four hours in advance along with outside documentation of the absence to be eligible for an excuse, except in extreme circumstances.

100.012 Senators are responsible for reporting Committee absences to their respective Committee Chair twenty-four hours in advance along with outside documentation of the absence to be eligible for an excuse, except in extreme circumstances.

101.001 Student Senators shall be elected in the fall and spring semesters according to the procedures described in the bylaws of the Student Government Association.

102.000 Absence Procedures
102.001a A penalty of one full absence shall be charged to a Senator for missing a scheduled Senate session unless prior approval is granted by the Executive Council.

102.001b A penalty of one full absence shall be charged to a Senator for missing a mandatory Student Government event in accordance with bylaw 100.003, unless prior approval is granted by the Executive Council.

102.001c A penalty of one full absence shall be charged to a Senator for missing an event for which a Senator volunteered, unless prior approval is granted by the Executive Council.

102.002 A penalty of one half absence shall be charged to a member of Senate who misses between ten and fifteen minutes of a Senate session. One full absence shall be charged to a member of Senate missing more than fifteen minutes of the Senate session—unless approval is granted by the Executive Council.”

102.003 A penalty of one full absence shall be charged to a Senator for missing a scheduled committee meeting unless prior approval is granted by the Committee Chair.

102.004 Committee Chairs are responsible for reporting absences to the Chief of Staff.

102.005 A record of these absences shall be held by the Chief of Staff and reported to the Executive Council weekly.

102.006 Appeals to these decisions may be submitted within one week in writing to the Chief of Staff and will be voted on by the Executive Council.
200.000 Legislative Chairpersons and Executive Board

200.001 Chairpersons of committees shall be appointed by the Executive Council following Spring Elections and prior to the first Senate session of the following academic year.

200.002 Each chairperson will have weekly office hours if deemed necessary by the Executive Council of the Student Government Association.

200.003 Legislative chairpersons shall serve on the Executive Board, alongside the Executive Council, and any other persons deemed necessary by the President and with the approval of the Executive Board.

200.003a All Executive Board members are required to attend the weekly Executive Board meeting.

200.003b Only legislative chairpersons and the Executive Council will serve as voting members of the Executive Board.

300.000 Senate Offices

300.001 There shall be a President of the Senate who is the Vice President of the Student Government Association. The duties of the President of the Senate shall be as follows:

300.001a To serve as the presiding officer of the Senate in an impartial and professional manner at all times.

300.001b To cast a vote in the Senate only in the case of a tie.
To appoint from the Senate or the student body, with the approval of a two-thirds vote of the Senate, a Parliamentarian and a President Pro Tempore.

The duties of the President Pro Tempore shall be as follows:

- To be the leading advocate for the Senate and serve as both a Legislative office and as a member of the Executive Board. The President pro Tempore shall attend Executive Board Meeting at the discretion of the Executive Council.
- To establish an agenda to be posted before Senate meetings including, but not limited to, upcoming bills and unfinished business.
- To, at their discretion, lead workshops for the benefit of the Senators, including but not limited to workshops in drafting legislation, parliamentary procedure and proper decorum.
- To send out an email over the SGA listserv containing the appropriate business of upcoming Senate sessions.
- To serve in lieu of the President of the Senate in their absence and preside over the Senate, voting only in the case of a tie.
- All bills must be sent to the President Pro Tempore by 5:00pm on the Sunday preceding the Senate in which they are to be presented. In addition, the docket must be sent out to the Senators and Executive Board by the President Pro Tempore no later than 5:00pm on the Monday preceding the Senate of which the docket shall be used.

900.000 Elections

Spring elections shall be held for the positions of Student Body President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, as well as nine Senators from the rising sophomore, junior, and senior classes as defined by credit hours. The spring elections shall be held before the end of the second week of April, and shall be held on a Wednesday and a Thursday. The dates of the election shall be determined by the Student Government Association Executive Council.

900.001a  Amendments to the Constitution, which have been approved by two thirds majority of the SGA Student Senate, and which have not yet been ratified by the two thirds of the voting student body shall be placed on the ballot for ratification.

900.001b  Any special question, poll, or ballot initiative which has been approved by the SGA Student Senate shall also be placed on the ballot.

900.002  Fall elections shall be held for the positions of nine Senators from the freshman class, as well as for any position that was not filled during the spring elections. The fall elections shall be held within the first three weeks of the Fall semester, excluding weeks in which the College of Charleston is not on a normal operating schedule, and shall be held on a Wednesday and a Thursday. The dates of the election shall be determined by the Student Government Association Executive Council.

900.003  A freshman senator will be defined as a first-year student (a student who has not completed one full year at any institution of higher education), regardless of hours accumulated in high school via AP credits, IB credits, dual credits, or anything of a similar nature. For the entire duration of their first year of college, a first-year student can be elected or appointed as a freshman senator only. However, subsequent years will be determined by credit hours.
For both Spring and Fall elections, in the event that there is a runoff election for any position, polls for the runoff election shall be opened at the discretion of the Election Commission for a period of 48 hours beginning within five business days of the closing of the original election.

In the event of a runoff election, the withstanding and current bylaws for elections should be implemented. However, specifically for a runoff election there will be regulations on the following:

Monetary restrictions: The two candidates running in a runoff will be allowed to spend a set amount of $50 during the runoff election. Regardless of the balance of monies left over from the previous election, this $50 will be the only amount of monies either candidate is able to use for their runoff election.

The two candidates in the runoff election are permitted to keep posted campaign materials until the date of the election. During this time period, candidates must adhere to all polices outlined in 904.000-905.006.

No student can infringe on the rights of student voter privacy during a Student Government Association election. No student should have access and/ or special rights to any account, such as CougarConnect, that withholds information about the Student Government Association elections.

Should any student violate such rights, they should be removed and/ or impeached from their current position.

The Election Commission
Elections for all Student Government Association offices and Senate seats shall be conducted by the Election Commission. There shall be a Chair of the Election Commission who shall be appointed by the Executive Council and confirmed by two-thirds majority vote of the Student Senate. The Election Commission shall consist of two members of the Student Government Association and two members of the Honor Council, none of whom are seeking an appointed or elected office in the Student Government Association. The Election Commission shall not exceed four students, excluding the Chairperson.

The following persons shall, if able and willing, serve as Ex Officio members of the Election Commission: the advisor to the Honor Council, the advisor to SGA, and the current President of SGA if not seeking an appointed or elected office in SGA.

Members of the Election Commission shall be impartial and show no preference towards any candidate, including interacting with candidate campaign materials on social media via posting about, sharing, liking, commenting on, etc. candidates’ campaign materials.

Any member of the Election Commission showing partiality shall be removed from their seat on the Election Commission.

Their seat may be filled by nomination of the Election Commission chair.

Regulations Regarding Candidate Eligibility

Candidates seeking election to any Student Government Association position or individuals who are appointed by the SGA Student Senate to vacant positions during the year must have attained a 2.5 Cumulative Grade Point Average and be in good disciplinary standing at the time they seek election. To ensure adherence to these standards, the SGA Academic Eligibility Form and SGA Election Registration Form must be completed by the Registrar’s Office and the Office of Student Affairs and submitted to the Election Commission by the deadline indicated on the form.

902.001a There shall be no term limits to holding a position, but no student who is not currently an undergraduate shall hold a position in the Student Government Association.

902.001b Candidates who meet the requirements for Executive office can run for only one Executive office and one Senate seat in the same election; however, they may only be installed into one position.

902.002 All individuals desiring a Student Government position shall submit a petition containing the signatures and student identification numbers of fifty (50) currently enrolled College of Charleston students. All petitions must be submitted to the Election Commission by the deadline indicated on the form. Candidates running for both Executive Council and a Senate position need only submit one petition for their campaign.

902.003 Candidates seeking the office of President shall have served as a Senator, Committee Director, non-elected committee member, Vice President, Treasurer, or Secretary.

902.004 Candidates seeking the offices of Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary shall not be required to have previously served in the Senate.
902.005 The Election Commission shall announce the final eligibility status of candidates for office via campus-wide email.

902.006 All potential candidates must attend a mandatory Student Government Association election information session to be eligible to pursue an elected position.

903.000 Regulations Regarding Campaign Funds and Expenses

903.001 No candidate may use student funds or campus resources obtained from the College of Charleston for their campaign.

903.001a Campus resources shall include, but not be limited to: writing on chalk/dry-erase boards, campus list serves, and any employee of the College of Charleston while in their official capacity.

903.001b Candidates may use printing from a campus facility, but they must document the cost of printing by providing documentation to the Election Commission in accordance with 903.004.

903.001c College of Charleston student emails are permissible to send and receive emails concerning campaigning.

903.002 No organization shall use student allocated monies to endorse a candidate. In such a case, the organization in question may lose its allocated funds as deemed necessary by the Student Body Treasurer and Allocations Committee.

903.002a If a student organization’s event is related to the campaign of a candidate, the entirety of the expense for the event shall be incurred on the respective candidate’s expense sheet.
Total campaign expenditures, including campaign literature, shall not exceed $200.00 for Senate candidates and $400,000 for Executive Council candidates. A candidate running for both Executive Council and Senate shall not exceed the amount of campaign expenditures allowed for an Executive Council candidate.

No candidate(s), with the exception of President and Vice President, shall pool campaign expenses with another candidate(s) so as to achieve a greater sum of expenditures than they are allotted individually.

Receipts for all campaign related expenses shall be submitted with the Campaign Expense Form. Campaign Expense Forms are due to the Election Commission by 5:30 p.m. on the last day of polls.

All receipts must be itemized, and no un-itemized receipts shall be accepted by the Election Commission.

A President and Vice President may run together and pool their funds together, given the following:

Both the Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates’ names must be on all campaign material.

Only one candidate’s name may appear on campaign literature, excluding a ticketed President and Vice President’s literature.

The Election Commission shall audit the expenses and donations of each winning candidate, prior to certifying them as a winner, to ensure that receipts have been submitted for all expenses and that they do not exceed the maximum expenditures allowed.
904.000 Regulations Regarding Campaign Literature

904.001 All campaign literature to be posted and distributed must be registered and counted by the Election Commission. Failure to register flyers and/or banners to be posted shall result in their removal and a candidate’s disqualification.

904.001a Posting shall be defined as displaying campaign literature on any surface with a permanent or semi-permanent intent, including but not limited to: stapling, taping, attaching, gluing, tying, or otherwise displaying campaign literature in a public place.

904.001b Distributing shall be defined as the active circulation of campaign literature to individuals through physical or electronic means.

904.001c Candidates are bound to the campus posting policies and as such, no person shall affix anything to the walls, doors, ceilings or any painted or non-painted area inside buildings. Only the bulletin boards are to be used for the posting of materials. Additionally, the use of paints, stains, acids, tapes, chalk or any other substance that might damage or deface the building is prohibited.

904.002 Campaign literature shall be considered under the following two categories delimited below: handouts and posted literature.

904.002a Handouts may include items such as t-shirts, koozies, buttons, pens, stickers, and other materials deemed appropriate by the Election Commission. If applicable, the dimensions of handouts may not exceed the area of a standard letter sheet (8.5 in. × 11 in.), whether distributed as a leaflet or folded pamphlet.

904.002b Posted literature must be posted or fixed to a surface permitted by the bylaws, and shall not be distributed by hand. Posted literature under the area of a large standard poster (24 in. × 36 in.) is limited to a quantity of 50 articles. Posted literature in excess of these dimensions are limited to a quantity of four articles. No posted literature shall exceed the area of a standard king-size bedsheet (76in x 80in).

904.002c Handouts must be distinct from posted literature, either in terms of content or size.

904.003 A candidate for an SGA office shall not obscure or alter posted literature of any other candidates. Candidates are responsible for the secure fixture of campaign literature so as to prevent inadvertent scattering and littering of campaign materials; candidates must also ensure thorough removal and proper disposal of all posted campaign literature within three days of election poll closure. Additionally, candidates must remove any posted campaign literature, should an observer notice disintegration or toner leaching and bring this to the candidate’s attention. Failure to comply with the above requirements provides grounds for disqualification.

904.004 No candidate(s) shall pool their allocated amount of Campaign Literature with another candidate(s) so as to achieve a greater amount of Campaign Literature than they are allotted individually in Section 904.002.

904.004a If either by their declaration, or if in the opinion of the Election Commission, candidates appear to be coordinating campaign literature, so as to express support for one another, candidates will be disqualified.

904.004b Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates shall be allowed to coordinate their literature in accordance with Bylaw 903.005a but may not exceed the quantity limitations for an individual candidate in accordance with Bylaw 904.002b.

904.005 No flyers, banners, and/or other campaign material shall be attached to wallpaper, painted walls, trees, brick sidewalks, lampposts, benches, railings, or any other surface that could be damaged by such attachment.

904.005a Candidates shall not violate the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Charleston, Article 4 Part 2, Section 54-404 (Also known as the Snipe Policy), or any other applicable municipal codes.

904.006 No campaign literature, including electronic advertisement, shall be posted or distributed earlier than one week prior to elections.

904.007 No campaign literature shall be approved once the polls have opened.

904.008 The Election Commission shall not approve or permit the use of any separate (only having one candidate’s name) campaign literature or paraphernalia for the Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates if they are running on a ticket.

904.009 Candidates may not alter campaign materials that have already been approved by the Election Commission.

A candidate's social media posts and stories should not denigrate other candidates.

Third-party posts in which a candidate is tagged will be considered under the responsibility of said candidate. Failure to address the posts or stories will be considered a violation of the rule banning denigrating social media posts and stories.

Candidates are free to advocate for their candidacies via direct messages and/or group chats.

When a student organization endorses a candidate, they must tag said candidate in the social media post.

When endorsed by a student organization, the candidate is responsible for informing the Election Commission in a manner the Election Commission deems fit.

Definition of Results and Vote Tabulation

A candidate shall be declared the winner in an election by meeting the following requirements:

A candidate for a single Executive Council position must receive a majority of all votes cast for that position to be declared the winner. In such elections where a candidate does not receive a majority, a run-off election shall be held within five business days with the two candidates receiving the highest percentages of the vote.
Senate seats for classes that have multiple vacancies shall be filled by the candidates in descending order according to the number of votes that they received.

The Elections Commission and the Advisor to Student Government shall receive the election results once the polls have closed.

Election results, including the number of votes that each candidate receives, shall be emailed to the student body, and candidate petitions shall remain on file for one month in the event of a contestation.

Online Voting

The right to vote shall not be denied to any student currently enrolled in the College of Charleston, regardless of the number of hours carried.

Currently enrolled students at the College of Charleston may vote online through Cougar Connect.

The SGA online voting system shall be administered by the Office of Student Life.

Access to the system shall be limited to the Office of Student Life, the Technology Coordinator for Student Affairs, the Advisor to Student Government, and members of the Election Commission.

All ballots shall be created and administered by the Technology Coordinator for Student Affairs and the Advisor to Student Government in conjunction with the Election Commission.
907.004 Tampering with or unauthorized access to the online voting system may result in the disqualification of a candidate and/or referral to the Dean of Students.

908.000 Disqualification

908.001 Disciplinary action against candidates shall fall under the discretion of the Election Commission.

908.002 Candidates may appeal any decision made by the Election Commission to the Honor Board. Honor Board members who are serving as a member of the Election Commission, or seeking SGA election shall not participate in the proceedings of these appeals.

908.003 The Honor Council shall have final say in all interpretation and enforcement of election rules and procedures.

908.004 Candidates disqualified from the election before polls close will not be listed on the results.

908.004a Candidates who have appeals pending will be exempt from Bylaw 908.004, and be able to continue campaigning, until the conclusion of the appeal process.

908.004b All complaints and evidence of an election violation should be sent to the Election Commission no later than 5:30 PM on the day in which election polls close.

908.004c Should no complaints be submitted nor disqualifications ruled, all results will be final and sent to The College of Charleston Campus by 8:00 PM the day in which election polls close (Thursday).
Should a complaint be submitted to the Election Commission. The Election Commission must communicate to the candidate, whom the complaint is about, that a complaint has been submitted and all information pertaining to the complaint. This communication must be done by 12:00 PM the day following the closing of elections (Friday).

The candidate must be allowed until 12:00pm the following day (Saturday) to appeal to the complaint. Following this, all appeal procedures currently stated in the SGA bylaws will be implemented.

Only final results shall be revealed to the student body.

Contestation of Elections

Any candidate may contest the election by submitting to the Election Commission a written statement requesting an investigation and specifying alleged irregularities. The written statement must be submitted within two business days following the closure of polls of the election.

Reasons for contestation include, but need not be limited to, the following: violation of election procedures, violation of election regulations, violation of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Student Government Association, violation of the Student Code of Conduct, violation of state, local, or federal laws, or grossly unethical campaign practices as defined by the Election Commission.

The Election Commission shall investigate and hear all election contestations. If insufficient evidence is presented, the election results shall stand.
Upon notification of the Election Commission’s decision any candidate may appeal the decision to the Honor Council. The appeal must be submitted in writing to the Chair of the Honor Board within two business days of the Election Commission’s decision.

The Honor Council shall hear all appeals. If the Honor Council finds that sufficient cause exists, it may order a new election or a part of the election. If insufficient evidence is presented, the election shall stand.

All evidence pertaining to the contestation of the election must be in the case file in the Office of Student Affairs one business day prior to the Honor Council hearing.

When an appeals case comes before the Honor Council, all involved parties shall be allowed to present evidence and witnesses in support of their case.

All records of contested elections shall be kept on file in the Office of Student Affairs. Contestation records shall not become a part of the involved parties’ permanent record, unless the Honor Council finds the party guilty of violating the Student Code of Conduct.

1000.000 Installation

Student Government Association Officers and Senators shall be installed following the spring elections at the discretion of the Student Government Association President. This must be done no later than the date of the last Senate.
Candidates who were elected, but who were unable to be installed in the Spring, may be installed at the first Senate meeting of the fall semester. The candidate-elect’s seat shall not be considered vacant unless they have yet to be installed following the first Senate meeting of the fall semester.

Senators elected in the Fall Elections shall be installed at the first Senate meeting of the fall semester.

The period of time between the candidates’ election and installation shall be used as period of apprenticeship in which they shall work with the outgoing officers.

The oath of office shall be administered by the President of the College of Charleston, or other representative, and shall read: “I (state your full name) swear to uphold this Constitution for the Student Body, endeavor to the best of my ability to promote the general welfare of the College of Charleston and its students at all times, exercise the powers and duties of my office in a manner befitting the reputation and good standing of this institution, and shall at all times refrain from activities which may bring shame and/or disgrace to my office and the College of Charleston.”

1100.000 Vacancies

In the event that a vacancy occurs in an Executive Office, other than the office of the President, an appointment shall be made by the President in a timely fashion after a formal resignation is tendered. The appointee shall take office upon confirmation by a majority of the Senate.
In the event that a vacancy occurs within the Senate, the vacancy shall be filled by an individual who has completed the appropriate requirements set forth in normal elections. In addition, the candidate must be appointed by the Executive Council and shall be confirmed by a majority vote of the Senate. The Student Government Association President shall immediately swear in any new Senator.

Any Senator who currently holds a Senate seat may move to the appropriate class should their class status change from Fall Semester to Spring Semester if a seat in the appropriate class is open at the discretion of the Executive Council. In cases when this occurs, the Vice President will make the Senate aware of class changes of Senators.

Freshman Senators will remain classified as freshmen throughout the entire duration of their first year in accordance with bylaw 900.003.

In the event that there are more applicants interested than positions available, the vacancy procedures shall be decided at the discretion of the Vice President.

1200.000 Procedures of the Senate

The College of Charleston Student Senate shall meet weekly at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesdays during the regular school session unless deemed necessary by the Executive Council to amend the time and/or frequency of Senate meetings.

All Student Government members, including Senators, officers, chairs, and non-voting members, shall come to Senate in acceptable attire, not bearing the insignia or logo of any other organization or political party or candidate or cause, whether it be an on-campus or off-campus organization, candidate, party, or cause, in order to maintain a professional and neutral environment.

1200.003 The President of the Senate shall be given the power to call special meetings, should the need arise.

1200.004 Two-thirds of Senate membership shall constitute a quorum for the dispatch of business at all regular and special meetings.

1200.005 Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall be the parliamentary authority of the Senate except where it conflicts with Federal or State law, or the Bylaws and Special Rules of Senate.

1200.006 The Senate shall enact a Special Rules of Procedure, the purpose of which shall be to supplement and modify rules contained in Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised. The Special Rules shall supersede any rules contained in Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised with which they may conflict.

1200.007 Personal debate and derogatory remarks about any person shall be strictly forbidden from the Senate floor. The President of the Senate shall call any member engaging in either practice out of order.

1200.008 Upon receiving approval from the Senate, a bill can become a law after receiving the signature of the Student Government Association President (or have passed by a vote of a two-thirds majority of the Senate to override the President’s veto).

1300.000 Role of the Advisor(s) to the Student Government Association

1400.001 Any College of Charleston student is eligible to serve on Student Government committees.

1400.002 The student must be in good academic standing with the College of Charleston.
1400.003 All Student Government Association committees shall, during the regular school session, meet weekly. This weekly meeting, a set day and time, should coincide with the committee leader (i.e. Initiative Director, Treasurer, and Secretary) and their committee members.

1400.004 Committee chairpersons are responsible for reporting attendance of committee meetings to the Chief of Staff.

1400.005 Committee chairpersons should report any progressions in his/her committee weekly at Executive Board meetings.

1400.006 There shall be an Allocations Committee chaired by the Student Body Treasurer.

1400.006a The Student Life Coordinator for Business Services or their designee shall serve as an ex-officio member.

1400.006b The Allocations Committee is responsible for distributing funding to the student body and student organizations in the form of budgets, contingency requests, and student outreach requests.

1400.006c The Allocations Committee shall follow guidelines outlined in The Compass for all funding processes.

1400.007 There shall be a Student Organizations Review Board chaired by the Student Body Secretary.

1400.007a The Assistant Director of Student Life or their designee shall serve an ex-officio member.
The Student Organization Review Board is responsible for the establishment and maintenance of all Student Government-recognized organizations.

There shall be at least four committees chaired by Executive Initiative Directors.

Initiative committees shall serve the purpose of identifying student needs on campus and developing tangible action plans to effectuate relevant changes by way of specific initiatives.

Initiative committees shall convene weekly and directors shall oversee the action plans of at least two initiatives at any given time.

Executive Initiative Directors shall attend weekly Executive Board meetings and coordinate action plans with Executive Council on a regular basis.

The Executive Initiative Directors shall be appointed by the Executive Council of the Student Government Association.

In fall semesters, the Freshman Committee can qualify as one of these committees.

Ad-hoc committees shall be created as needed at the discretion and by majority vote of the President, Vice President, and the Chief of Staff.

The Chief of Staff shall be aware of all the members of all ad-hoc committees.

There shall be a Summer Council tasked with preparation for the upcoming academic year.
1400.010a All members of the Summer Council should reside in Charleston over the summer.

1400.010b Summer Council members shall be required to staff the SGA table at all Orientation Sessions during the Organization Fair.

1400.010c There may be more than one chair of the Summer Council.

1400.010d While completing Summer Council duties, the Chair(s) of the Summer Council shall receive a summer compensation not to exceed the collective amount of $1,000.

1400.010e Members of the Summer Council and the Chair(s) shall be appointed by the Executive Council following Spring Elections and prior to the end of the academic term in which Spring Elections were held.

1400.010f The President shall be an ex-officio member of the Summer Council regardless of their residency.

1400.011 There shall be a Programming Director tasked with maintaining recurring initiatives. Recurring initiatives will be outlined in the bylaws in section 1400.010.

1400.011a Planning and organizing the logistics of the annual Bike Auction.

1400.012a All postings on social media platforms seen as useful in disseminating the message, announcements, and goals of the Student Government Association.

1400.012b The Student Government Association website under the oversight of the President and in coordination with the updates provided by the Deputy Chief of Staff and Secretary (or appointed designees), as outlined in bylaws 500.006b and 800.006 respectively.

1500.000 Disciplinary Action against Executive and Legislative Officers

1500.001 Disciplinary action shall be in the form of Censure, and Impeachment.

1500.002 Disciplinary action may only be brought against an official if they are found to violate an article in the Constitution and/or any rules of conduct in the Student Handbook, College of Charleston Honor Code, SGA Bylaws or the oath of office.

1500.003 A Senator, Executive Council member, or Executive Board member can be censured for a non-impeachable offense to signify that the SGA does not condone their action or behavior.

1500.003a A censure shall come in the form of a written and recorded reprimand and shall be introduced by a member of the legislative body in the form of a bill and treated as a bill.

1500.003b If the censure bill pertains to a member of the legislative body that member must abstain from voting.

1500.003c A censure shall pass by a 2/3 vote of Senate.

1500.004 Impeachment may be introduced if the SGA member in question violates any rules of conduct in the Student Handbook, College of Charleston Honor Code, or the SGA Oath of Office.

1500.004a The impeachment process shall begin when a letter of impeachment is submitted to the Executive Board. The letter must specify any alleged offenses and previous disciplinary action taken, if any.

1500.004b The Executive Board shall review the letter and refer it to Student Senate in the form of a bill sponsored by a Senator.

1500.004c When a bill of Impeachment is introduced the member in question will act as a non-voting member of the student body and shall not exercise their position during the entirety of the Senate meeting in which the bill is docketed.

1500.004d If the Senate finds that said offenses exist by 2/3 vote the case shall proceed to the Honor Council to begin the second step of removal of an executive or legislative member, Conviction.

1500.004e The member in question shall be suspended from their official duties once the letter is referred to the Honor Council.
Conviction shall be defined as the final step for removal of an executive or legislative member. Conviction shall begin when a bill of Impeachment has passed Senate by 2/3 vote.

The Honor Council has eight working days from receipt of the letter from the Senate to reach a final decision regarding the officer or Senator in question. The Honor Council shall investigate all reasonable causes to impeach a Student Government Association executive or legislative officer; they shall take appropriate action against the accused.

Two-thirds of the Student Senate may vote to extend the Honor Council's eight-day deadline if they determine that a sufficient cause exists to do so.

1600.000 Amending the Bylaws

All proposed revisions to the Student Government Association Bylaws shall be submitted by any Senator at any Senate meeting. These revisions should be presented in the form of a bill.

The Senate shall treat a bill revising the Bylaws in the same manner a any other bill, the only difference being that a three-fourths majority shall be needed in order to enact the proposed changes.

After the bill has been passed by the Senate and signed by the President, the bylaws will be amended

A copy of the most recent Bylaws must be easily accessible to all members of the Student Government Association and the student body either through electronic means.
1700.000 Fiscal Policy

1700.001 The internal budget of Student Government Association shall be made the semester prior to its intended use in accordance with the budget deadlines stated in The Compass.

1700.002 The Student Government Association’s Internal Budget will be presented to the Allocations Committee for review during Budget Hearings each semester.

1700.002a The current committee chairpersons will be responsible for writing a proposed budget for their committees. The proposals will be due by the date set by the Student Body Treasurer. Each committee chairperson will present their section of the internal budget to the Treasurer who will then present the entire internal budget to the Allocations Committee. The final distribution of the funds is at the discretion of the Allocations Committee.

1700.002b The Student Body Treasurer is responsible for writing a proposed budget for Executive Council. This budget shall cover operational costs of the Student Government Association and any internal Senate-wide spending. The final distribution of the funds is at the discretion of the Allocations Committee.

1700.003 Only 10% of the Internal Budget of the Student Government Association may be allocated for Senator-Only Social expenses.

1700.004 Senator-Only Social expenses shall be defined as all expenses related to events and purchases that are of a social, rather than business nature, and are only open to and/or benefit Senators.
